Error	1	I was getting really stressed trying to fill out the C1 form for my dad. His affairs were really simple and I didn't think justified paying a solicitor almost £4,000 to do. Thank goodness I found My Probate Partner online! Mike was so helpful and supportive, and with the templates and samples I had access to I was able to get the form completed without further stress.	5	1	Google Score
Error	2	Oops, accidentally said this place never contacted me again after first call, that was NOT this place. This place actually did reply to my email pretty quickly to say sorry to hear about my situation but that unfortunately it wasn't something they deal with. So I don't really have any proper experience with them but at least they got back to me and seemed nice so giving 5 stars based on that :)	5	1	Google Score
Error	3	It wasn't easy getting to the point of making my claim. I was anxious and still recovering from my accident. I was hit by a car whilst cycling on my way home. It was after many months and realising how much the accident affected my mobility - I was unable to cycle for 8 months that I decided to seek recompense. Zara at Digby Brown was professional, understanding, clear and efficient. I felt reassured and in control throughout. Nicky	5	1	Google Score
Error	4	Early in 2022 after 25 years of marriage I suddenly and unexpectedly found myself facing separation and divorce. Life as I knew it had been blown apart and in the middle of trying to cope with the sheer trauma and continue to function 'normally' in front of my children, I had absolutely no idea what to do or where to start. From the very first minute I walked into Nyree Conways office, I felt the reassurance that I was in extremely capable and safe hands. Nyree has guided me carefully, considerately and empathetically through every step of what started out as my worst nightmare, and now almost on the 'other side' I can genuinely say I don't know why I was so worried, and that walking into her office has been one of the best things I've done in my life. Thanks to Nyree I feel like I managed to endure and survive this process with dignity, empowerment and most of all, with continuing to be able to show reason and good judgment throughout. Thank you Nyree for everything.	5	1	Google Score
Error	5	After almost a decade in Scotland I had a big downturn on all aspects of my life and, as per Murphy's law, worst situations still to happen. Got some traffic charges after taking some bad choices and for the first time I had a case against me in court. I was worried, without knowing how the judicial system worked, contacted a few solicitors and as soon I spoke with Andy I had to have him taking care of my case. Was dealt swiftly, with professionalism and friendliness! Really 'fought in my corner' and took every worries I had, hope I don't need his services again but if anything happens I will contact McSporrans. Thank you for everything.	5	1	Google Score
Error	6	First class service opted to pay the extra for Kris Buchanan as I was sure I was going to loose my license after over 2 years and numerous court appearances after dragging out so long kris was on annual leave on final appearance but mr scullion himself replaced him and full thing got thrown out. Really do try their hardest to put you at ease rite down to calling the night before court to see your ok. Any dealings with office staff on phone or in office have always been more than helpful and really friendly to put you at ease and offering tea coffee etc. hopefully never need another lawyer again but if I do definitely be returning to scullion law.	5	1	Google Score
Error	7	Almost one year ago, I was unfortunate enough to be charged with 3 criminal offences. As someone who had not previously had dealings with the Court system or the Police in that context, it was a confusing and worrying time for both me and my family. I asked around my professional friends to recommend a competent and experienced criminal lawyer and McSporrans name came up on several occasions. My case had various complications such as vulnerable witness applications and was not straightforward in many respects. Nobody can guarantee the outcome in court proceedings but I have to say that throughout the whole process, Andrew Houston, of McSporrans guided me, explained the various stages and provided me with a frank and honest appraisal of what to expect and our best course of action. Andrew is a consummate professional and I would have absolutely no hesitation in recommending his services to anyone who finds themselves in a similar situation as me. It was not just his command of the legal processes and knowledge of the law which impressed me. It is clear that he is well respected within the system and his courteous manner goes a long way to find agreement, consensus and common sense within the system. Thankfully, I had a positive outcome in my instance and I will be eternally grateful to Andrew Houston whose efforts and ability fell far beyond my expectations. If I could give 6 stars to McSporrans, I would.	5	1	Google Score

Error	9	Personal Injury claim first initiated June 2019, following a no fault of mine accident. Slater & Gordon went through allocating me various caseholders for the following 3 years (albeit covid slowed everything down) and nothing seemed to move forward. This resulted in me having to reluctantly raise a formal complaint with them. Thankfully, I was then allocated a fantastically proactive and professional lawyer named Adil Saeed. Adil communicated regularly with updates and options. He really was a breathe of fresh air after all the previous false starts I had with the other case holders in Edinburgh. Thank you so much for your efficiency Adil, truly appreciated!	5	1	Google Score
Error	10	After being charged in a totally farical case regarding a supposed domestic incident (an argument) I turned to Kinloch solicitors and was defended by Mr drew long in court, due to his diligence and professional manner he totally destroyed the prosecution case despite the best efforts of the prosecuting solicitor at putting words in the police and complainants mouths I was rightly cleared of the charges and found not guilty, i can't recommend David Kinloch solicitors highly enough and in particular Drew Long, would definitely use them again.	5	1	Google Score

Error	14	My case caused me a lot of anxiety & stress however I knew after the 1st meeting with Mr Sheridan that I was in very capable hands & no stone would be left unturned. My case centres around being given a FPN by 2 Police Scotland traffic officers for speeding, a charge which I strongly denied, it was clear to me that the 2 officers in question were being deceptive & I was so glad the Procurator Fiscal seen this also & my case was dropped before it went to trial. Inaccurate	33	I had been put in contact with Lyons Davidson via my insurance company. I had a dispute with a very large business over them building on my land. This was extremely daunting and overwhelming to start as i had attempted to settle my dispute without the need for legal representation. When I first spoke to my assigned solicitor Kirsty Lang she took an extended period to go over my full case with me in a way to ensure I had a very clear understanding of my situation. Thought my almost 2 years of Kirsty representing me she has been consistent in how informed she has kept me though the whole process, explaining information in a clear and concise way for me to understand and above all she has managed my expectation through our journey instead of making promises she could not keep. All of this is before getting onto how friendly and engaging she has been making the whole process more calm and informal removing a lot of the stress. Inaccurate	35	The Family law team at MHD helped me immensely in a child residence case. The father kept raising repeat court actions against me over trivial issues (such as 2 days of holiday a year) despite having near 50/50 shared care of our child. My MHD solicitor saw the toxic dynamic of abuse and controlling behavior through the overtly minutiae nature of the claims against me. Thanks to his wise, informed, and compassionate approach, I now have principle care of my child and a court permission to relocate with him near my workplace. This was a stressful, complex, and prolonged case (on top of 3 previous cases over the span of 4 years) that was handled with upmost care and professionalism by my MHD solicitor. The outcome is truly life changing and allows both my child and I to regain autonomy of our lives and heal. I am forever grateful to the MHD family law team for their help and recommend them unreservedly to anyone in difficult family situation.	5	3	Google Score

Inaccurate	36	I stumbled upon MHD Law by accident while trying to get a certified copy of my passport for a mortgage application. I have previously tried other venues as I was advised this can be done by a bank official, doctor, dentist or police officer among others. In practice this proved not to be so easily done and all the places I inquired about this told me they were unable to help me. Thankfully, MHD Law's offices were right next to the police station I was trying as my last resort for the day and they solved my problem on the spot. I would like to especially thank Mr. Raymond Fairgrieve who assisted me not only with certifying a copy of my passport, but also of my driving license in case I ever needed it. Not only did Mr. Fairgrieve take some time of his day to help me, but he also refused to charge me anything for this service. I am really impressed and thankful. It was a simple service indeed, but the human side of MHD Law and of Mr. Fairgrieve especially makes them stand out and I would not hesitate recommending them or using them again in the future. Inaccurate	48	I want to leave a review regarding the service myself and my family received from Mr Ross Jenkins over the past 2 years, from first point of contact, until the resolution of the case this afternoon. I was accused of 2 charges (driving and assault) which neither were the truth, putting a huge amount of stress and strain hanging over us all for 2 years until today. From the very beginning, Ross was very professional and dignified, worked hard for us keeping us updated on all about the case and explaining how the process works all the way through. I must highlight the appreciation we have on how Ross handled the what must have been difficult task of talking and explaining to my daughter who was a witness, 8 years old at the start of this accusation, on what would happen and calming her emotions and nerves in the whole process. Luckily and due to the work Ross done today during the COPFS witness's stand, my daughter did not have to take the stand, and neither did myself or the other defense witness as all charges were dropped before the need and I was free to go without charge. I would highly recommend Ross. Great and easy to work with, highly efficient and helpful. Thanks Ross.	5	3	Google Score

There were extreme personal circumstances surrounding the point at which he was caught speeding. I spoke to Ross Jenkins and from the moment I spoke to him I felt better. He was calm and helpful and above all incredibly sympathetic to the situation that my family were dealing with. He took on our case and dealt with the fiscal to explain the circumstances surrounding the offence. He managed to get the offence downgraded to a warning meaning my son could keep his licence - something we hardly dared to believe could happen. This had been hanging over my son at a time that was already very difficult and this has been like a weight has been lifted off us. I cannot thank Ross enough. Inaccurate	56	I have used the firm previously and was highly impressed with the astute Michael Lyon who handled my case back then. Unfortunately, all these years later I found myself receiving a citation from the court with several alleged offences. My case called early on the 22nd December @ Dumfries JP Court. The expert and highly tenacious Ronnie Simpson was my solicitor on the day. It quickly became apparent that we were in for a joke of a day. Ronnie was not impressed with the Crown in the slightest for their handling of the case as they informed him of their wish to adjourn for a date sometime next year. I recall him asserting that he was going to "nail the Crown" - and nail them he did! Ronnie was unwavering - he vehemently opposed an adjournment and he showed strength & guile in the face of the Crown as they wished to adjourn my case for a later date as the Police Witnesses seemingly failed to turn up. Ronnie put his foot down and laid out a comprehensive argument for the case to be abandoned as it surely wasn't in the public interest for it to continue. I am absolutely delighted to announce that the case was indeed abandoned. A most welcome early Christmas present! I hope Ronnie & the rest of the Michael Lyon team have a fantastic Christmas & New Year. Of course, I hope that I don't require their services again in the future, however I wouldn't hesitate to get in contact as their skills and expertise are second to none.
